

SOCIETY'S PLANS TO GREET THE NEW YEAR

under Mr. Edison. No date has been set for the wedding.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Helen G. McKissock, daughter of William McKissock, Argentine Consul at Boston, to Dr. F. Gordon Brigham of Flushing, N. Y., and this city.

Dr. Brigham was graduated from the Harvard medical school in 1911 and from Columbia in 1909, during which year he was captain of the football and basketball teams.

An engagement announced last week was that of Miss Marian Gustine Bradford of 383 Park avenue to Robert W. B. Elliott of this city.

The wedding of Miss Maud Ingersoll, daughter of the late Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, to Wallace Marcus Probasco, formerly of Cincinnati, will be celebrated to-morrow at the home of her mother, 117 East Twenty-first street. The Rev. Dr. John Elliott of the Ethical Culture Society, who is an old friend of the bride's family, will officiate.

The engagement was announced several weeks ago. Miss Ingersoll is an active member of the Women's Political Union and is interested in woman suffrage. She is secretary of the Vivisection Investigation League.

Mr. Probasco is the son of Wallace Probasco of Cincinnati. He is a grandson of the late William McLean of Ohio and a nephew of the late John McLean.

A wedding of this week will be that of Miss Helen Cole Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Whitney of Boston, to George G. Bourne of Oakdale, L. I., and this city. It will be celebrated in St. Bartholomew's Church on Wednesday afternoon, after which there will be a small reception in the ballroom of the Hotel Gotham.

Miss Whitney will have her sister, Mrs. Allan L. Briggs, as her matron of honor and the other attendants will include Mrs. Stanley Keith and the Misses Mary Boyce, Elizabeth Kendall, Marie Cowens, Marjorie Bourne, Inez Tiedeman, Harriet Douglas and Havesel Huston. Miss Margaret Stewart Macloy will be the flower girl and Arthur Paul MacArthur will act as page.

The bride will give a dinner for her attendants at the Gotham to-morrow night, and at the same time Mr. Bourne will give his farewell bachelor dinner at Sherry's. His brother, Howard Bourne, will be the best man and the ushers will include George B. Wagstaff, Gerald Vanderbilt Hollins, Seth B. French, 2d, Douglas D. Dunn, Erving H. Rand, Reginald Roome, Morgan J. O'Brien, Jr., William S. Lawson, Jr., Elton Hoyt, 2d, William W. Eastman, Chandler W. Bleisstein and William P. Snyder, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Bourne, parents of the bridegroom-elect, will sail on January 7 to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Strassberger, in Rumania. Mr. Strassberger is in charge of the American Legation there.

The color conference at the Waldorf-Astoria on the night of January 6 for the benefit of the fund for free beds supported by the Loomis Sanitarium Annex is sure to have excellent patronage. André de Fouquieres will illustrate the conference with the plates made by Gervais Courtellemont and photographed in colors directly from the subjects.

There will be time for dinners, as the conference will not begin until 9 o'clock. Mrs. Richard Irvine, Mrs. James Speyer, Mrs. Arthur J. Moulton, Mrs. John Dineley Prince, Mrs. Frederic E. Lewis, Miss Elizabeth V. Cookford, Mrs. George W. Weston, Mrs. Charles H. Tweed, Mrs. Henry M. Alexander, Miss May Moulton and Mrs. Moses Taylor have taken boxes. Tickets may be obtained of Miss Doane, 18 West 34th street.

There has been an encouraging sale of seats and boxes for the concert to be given in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria on the afternoon of January 7 for the benefit of the New York Orthopedic Hospital and Dispensary. Miss Lucretia Hori and Pasquale Anato of the Metropolitan Opera are to sing.

In addition to the long list of box purchasers there may be added the names of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, W. Fellows Morgan, William M. Kingsland, Sidney C. Borg, Edwin D. Morgan, W. Ross Rogers, Frederick Trevor Hill, David P. Morgan, William H. Crocker, B. Aymar Sand, Amos R. E. Pincher, William Robinson, Archibald Rogers, E. Francis Hyde, George Cabot Ward, Harry J. Luce, Frank S. Witherbee, William M. V. Hoffman, Warren S. Adams, Henry A. Alexander, George J. Gould, Julian W. Robbins and Francis L. Stetson.

A dance will be held at the house of Mrs. Robert Livingston, 11 Washington Square North, on January 28 in aid of the St. Agnes Day Nursery. Miss Laura S. Livingston, daughter of Mr. Livingston, and several of her young friends who compose the Junior Auxiliary of the nursery give the dance annually in aid of the charity, and the members are anxious to make the one this year a success.

One of the most popular of this season's dances will be the annual Charity Ball, to be held in the ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria on January 30. Mrs. Charles F. Roe, who is receiving applications for boxes for that night, has already had many requests for reservations. As in former years there will be several large dinners given before the ball, some by the members of the committee, which includes Mrs. Algonquin Sydney Sullivan, Mrs. Henry Clay Adams, Mrs. George Hillard Benjamin, Mrs. Henry Mills Day, Mrs. Thomas Hicks, Mrs. Robert Nicol, Mrs. Frank S. Witherbee and Miss Ruth Lawrence.

Rehearsals have begun for the two act musical comedy "Perplexing the Producer," which the members of the Junior League will give in the ballroom of the Plaza on February 3 and 4 in aid of the work of their society. Those who will take part meet in the Plaza ballrooms on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons of each week, but they intend to keep the plot of the play a secret until it is presented. There will be a final dress rehearsal on the night of February 1.

Among those to whom principal parts have been assigned are Miss Julia Edey, who will have the leading role; Miss Kate Gordon Wilks, Miss Margaret B. Wagstaff, Miss Tessie Thayer and Miss Hope Hamilton. Some of the young men in the cast include James Taylor, Geoffrey Taylor, Charles West, Oran Melvin and John Parsons. Emil Gustenberger has composed the music for the comedy.

The play will be given on the afternoon and evening of February 3 and on the night of February 4. After the performance on each night there will be dancing. The members of the league who will not take part in the comedy will have an opportunity to assist in making the event a success by selling programmes and flowers.

The Junior League was founded by Mrs. Willard D. Straight when she was Miss Dorothy Whitney. It is composed of the debutantes of society of each year who are assisted by their predecessors in the work of charity that is carried on.
